

Mini-workshop

Local Approaches to Sustainability Management:

Youth, Partnerships, and Urban Sustainability

9 January (Tue.) 2024, 16:45 - 18:15 (JST)

Dr. Amelia Clarke

Professor in the School of Environment, Enterprise and Development (SEED) at the University of Waterloo in Canada

Field: sustainable cities governance and the measurement of youth impact

- Working on environment and sustainability since 1989
- Former President of Sierra Club Canada
- A leader of $8.5M national research: “Municipal net-zero action research partnership (N-ZAP)”
- A leader of The Youth and Innovation Project: Releasing the untapped potential of young people
- Founding member of Nature Canada's Women for Nature
- #Thinklist30 social media influencer
- Founder of Sierra Youth Coalition

Agenda

- Implementation of the UN Sustainable Development Goals at the local level
- Net-zero cities, pathways for the local energy transition, and new approaches to carbon accounting
- Business engagement in community sustainable development
- Cross-sector partnerships as a means to pursue local sustainable development
- Measuring youth impact (on achieving social, economic and environmental goals)
- Potential of applied research for making a difference through our scholarship

Format: Hybrid (On-site and On-line via ZOOM)

Venue: 201 Lecture Hall, Higashi Ichijokan Building (2F)

Language: English

Registration (free of charge): <http://tinyurl.com/GSAIS-SERG>

(DEADLINE: 8th January, 17:00)

Registration QR

For any questions, please contact prof. Dimiter Ialnazov: ialnazov.dimitersavov.8w@kyoto-u.ac.jp